

Consensus Guidelines

Pregnant Women with Heart Disease

22 August 08-00 Pm to 10-00 Pm (PKT)

Chaired by:

Pregnancy with Congenital & Valvular Heart Diseases

Prof. Dr. Mehnaz Atiq
Liaquat National Hospital.
(Paediatric Cardiologist)

Prof Dr. Ishtiaq Rasool
General Secretary Pakistan
Cardiac Society

Pregnancy with Hypertension

Prof. Dr. M. Ishaq
Consultant Cardiologist
Past General Secretary PHL

Pregnancy with Heart Failure

Prof. Dr. Abdul Samad
Consultant Cardiologist
Past General Secretary PCS

Women Cardiology

Prof Khalida Soomro
Co-ordinator For Go Red For Women Program in Pakistan

Moderator

Agenda:

Congenital Heart & Valve disease in Pregnancy

Dr. Elisa A. Bradley,
The Ohio State University USA

Pregnancy and Pulmonary
Arterial Hypertension

Dr Saira Bukhari,
AKUH, Karachi

Prof. Dr. Zainab Samad
A.K.U.H, Karachi

Pregnancy with complicated congenital heart diseases
Prof Najma Patel
NICVD, Karachi

Break 15 mins

Hypertension in Pregnancy and Post-Partum

Dr. Garima Sharma,
John Hopkins university Usa

Break 15 mins

Obesity, Diabetes – Connecting the Dots in Women with Heart Failure

Prof Uzma Khan, University of Missouri columbo Ohio

Guidelines for the management of Pregnancy with Heart Diseases in developing of South Asia
Dr. Farhala Baloch, AKUH,
Karachi

Vote of Thanks and Closing
Remarks

Prof. Dr. Babar Haroon Aziz

Objectives

The aim of this review guidelines is to provide practical guidelines for the diagnosis of assessment and treatment of cardiovascular assessment of disease in pregnancy and to use an evidence-based approach to generate the consensus for recommendation in guidelines for developing countries of South Asia with quality of the evidence.